

MAINTAINING SUPERNATURAL HEALING AND DELIVERANCE

Healing Scriptures:

If someone qualified declared healing for you by the wounds of Christ and it did not manifest, or only partially manifested, then some warfare to finish the work remains for you to do. As Christ did during His temptation by the devil in the wilderness, this is a truth encounter (not a power encounter) where lies are refuted with truth in the Scriptures. It may be enough to declare the following scriptures daily until the full healing manifests:

“And great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and they put them at his feet, and he healed them, so that the crowd wondered, when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.” Matthew 15:30. 31

THE LIE: “God does not want you to be healed.” Vs. THE TRUTH: “The Lord wants everyone to be healed and delivered now, completely and for their healing to last.”

“That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: ‘He took our illnesses and bore our diseases.’” Matthew 8:16, 17 ESV

THE LIE: “You need to do something to be worthy of healing.” Vs. THE TRUTH: “It is a free gift, paid for by the wounds of Christ, you do not deserve and cannot buy it with money or earn it by good works.”

“But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and with his wounds we are healed.” Isaiah 53:5 ESV

“He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed.” I Peter 2:24 ESV

When you are healed, live a sanctified and righteous life. DO not continue sinning, or worse infirmity may result.

THE LIE: “God is teaching you something through illness.” Vs. THE TRUTH: “Holy Spirit is our teacher and illness is not His way of instruction.”

We can and should learn from the natural consequences of our mistakes. However, making mistakes is optional, and not the preferred or best means of learning or maturing.

We are taught by Christians, “And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues.” I Corinthians 12:28 ESV

We are taught by Holy Spirit: “But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him.” I John 2:27 ESV

Nowhere in the scriptures does it plainly say sickness is imposed by God to teach us a lesson. Sickness, trauma and death are the natural consequence of sin. The Scriptures plainly teach us what we need to know about righteousness and sin. When we learn about and deal with sin, sickness must go and healing must come!

THE LIE: “You need to be a Christian to be healed.” Vs. THE TRUTH: None of those healed by Christ were Christians (it was all before His resurrection), and it is a sign to give the Father glory!

“Jesus answered, ‘It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him.’” John 9:3 ESV

“For the man on whom this sign of healing was performed was more than forty years old.” Acts 4:22 ESV

“Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico.” Acts 5:12 ESV

“Thus tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is a sign not for unbelievers but for believers” I Corinthians 14:22 ESV

Other Scriptures on healing:

“And he cried to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a log, and he threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made for them a statute and a rule, and there he tested them, saying, ‘If you will diligently listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and do that which is right in his eyes, and give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes,’” Exodus 15:25, 36 ESV

“Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.” Psalm 103:25 ESV

Keeping Your Healing and Deliverance

In general, it is good to confess our sins daily to prevent giving the enemy legal rights to oppress us (Acts 10:38). The best practice is to avoid sin. With that in mind, below are the Three Great Commandments and the Four Great Prohibitions (Basically Do's and Don'ts). All the other “rules for life” should be possible to derive from these. (Matthew 22:37-40)

Some things not to do:

If you have been prescribed medication by a competent physician or psychiatrist before you were healed, get confirmation from a medical professional of the healing. When your healing is medically verified, then you may discontinue the medication or discard unnecessary prothesis like crutches or hearing aids. If you were using hearing aids before being healed, and your hearing is restored, do not go back to using hearing aids or you may lose your healing because of unbelief.

If you are taking supplements specifically intended to treat the infirmity, discontinue and discard the supplements or special diet once your healing is medically verified. To continue taking such supplements is unbelief, which may cause a relapse. Commonly used supplements for maintaining good health are fine and recommended.

THE FOUR PROHIBITIONS - Acts 15:20,29 & 21:25
Eating meat sacrificed to idols	This is tempered by Christ's teachings in Matthew 15:17 and Mark 7:19, and the Apostle Paul's writings in I Corinthians Ch. 8. Eating meat in some non-Christian, religiously themed restaurants risk violating this prohibition: "Mediterranean" (meat from animals slaughtered in Islamic "halal" butcher shops), Chinese (Taoist), Japanese (Shinto), Indian (Hindu), African/Brazilian (Santeria), Austronesian (Utux), etc.
Sexual immorality	I.e. fornication, onanism (masturbation or coitus interruptus), adultery, incest, pedophilia, bestiality and concubitus daemonis (sexual intercourse with demons)
Eating meat from animals that have been strangled.	Meat must be from animals slaughtered by letting out their blood, and not killed by strangulation or ritual slaughter in religious rites contrary to the Faith.
Eating blood	Do not eat blood, blood products or food where blood is a significant component. Eating myoglobin (an oxygen transporting protein found in muscles that is released by cooking) is not a violation of this because it is not "blood" but a subunit of blood. Receiving a blood transfusion is acceptable if the blood product is cleansed by prayer. (The intent of this prohibition is to avoid demonization by blood obtained from a demonized animal or person. For ingesting or receiving a transfusions of demon tainted blood can cause demonization of a high order.)

The next step would be to undergo a thorough deliverance ministry to remove curses, break soul ties and cast out demons. This is hosted for free online about once per quarter on a weekend.
